MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY

Defendant Alberto Minor-Olvera moves for the production of the following discovery. This motion applies to discovery of which the government attorney knows, or of which the government attorney may become aware through due diligence. See Fed. R. Crim. P.16.

(1) The Defendant's Statements. The defendant requests disclosure of all copies of any written or recorded statements made by him; any written records containing the substance of any oral statements made by the defendant and any written summaries of the defendant's oral statements contained in the handwritten notes of the government agent; any response to any Miranda warnings which may have been given to the defendant; any response by the defendant to interrogatories; as well as any other statements by the defendant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a) (1) (A).

(2) Arrest Reports, Notes and Tapes. The defendant requests the government to turn over all arrest reports, notes, any tapes dispatch or otherwise, or TECS records that relate to the circumstances alleged in the indictment. This request includes, but is not limited to, any rough notes, records, reports, transcripts or other documents which contain statements of the defendant or any other discoverable material. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a) (1) (A); Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). The government must produce arrest reports, investigator's notes, memos from arresting officers, dispatch tapes, sworn statements, and prosecution reports pertaining to the defendant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a) (1) (B) and (C); Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2 and 12(i).

(3) The Defendant's Prior Record. The defendant requests disclosure of his prior record. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a) (1) (B).

(4) Evidence Seized. The defendant requests production of evidence seized as a result of any search, either warrantless or with a warrant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a) (1) (C).

1           (5)   Tangible Objects. The defendant requests the opportunity to inspect and 2 copy as well as test, if necessary, all other documents and tangible objects, including 3 photographs, books, papers, documents, fingerprint analysis, vehicles, or copies of 4 portions thereof, which are material to the defense or intended for use in the 5 government's case-in-chief or were obtained from or belong to the defendant. Fed. R.
6 Crim. P. 16 (a) (1) (C).

7           (6)   Request for Preservation of Evidence. The defendant specifically requests 8 the preservation of all physical evidence that may be destroyed, lost, or otherwise put 9 out of the possession, custody, or care of the government and which relates to the 10 charges alleged in the indictment. This request includes any tapes, or the 11 handwritten notes of the government agents taken while interviewing any witness, 12 the results of any fingerprint analysis, any audio and video surveillance tapes, the 13 defendant's personal effects, and any evidence seized from the defendant or any third 14 party.

15           (7)   Reports of Examinations And Tests. The defendant requests copies of 16 any reports of physical and mental examinations and any scientific tests which are 17 material to the defense or intended for use in the government's case-in-chief. Fed. R.
18 Crim. P. 16 (a) (1) (D).

19           (8)   Expert Witnesses. The defendant requests the name, qualifications, and 20 a written summary of the testimony of any person that the government intends to call
21 as an expert witness during its case-in-chief. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16 (a) (1) (E).

22           (9)   Brady Material. The defendant requests all documents, statements, 23 agents' reports, and tangible evidence favorable to the defendant on the issue of 24 guilty, which affect the credibility of the government's case, or which may result in a
25 lower sentence under the United States Sentencing Guidelines. Under Brady, 26 impeachment as well as exculpatory evidence falls within the definition of evidence
27 favorable to the accused. United States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667 (1985); United States
28 v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976).

1 (10) Giglio Information. The defendant requests all statements and/or 2 promises, express or implied, made to any government witnesses in exchange for 3 their testimony in this case, and all other information which could arguably be used
4 for the impeachment of any government witnesses. Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S.
5 150 (1972).

6 (11) Jencks Act Material. The defendant requests production in advance of 7 trial of all material, including dispatch tapes, which the government must produce
8 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3500. Advance production will avoid the possibility of delay
9 at the request of defendant to investigate the Jencks material. A verbal
10 acknowledgment that “rough” notes constitute an accurate account of the witness’
11 interview is sufficient for the report or notes to qualify as a statement under 12 §3500(e) (1). Campbell v. United States, 373 U.S. 487, 490-92 (1963). In United 13 States v. Boshell, 952 F.2d 1101 (9th Cir. 1991), the Ninth Circuit held that when an 14 agent goes over interview notes with the subject of the interview the notes are then 15 subject to the Jencks Act.

16 (12) Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence. The defendant requests prior notice of 17 any crimes or bad acts that the government intends to introduce against him in its 18 case-in-chief. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a) (1) (C); Fed. R. Evid. 404 (b) and 609 (b). The 19 defendant request such notice four weeks before trial in order to give the defense time
20 to investigate and prepare for trial.

21 III

22 LEAVE TO FILE ADDITIONAL MOTIONS

23 The defendant has not had access to some of the discovery, and the discovery
24 in this matter may be extremely extensive and complex. As such, additional 25 information has been requested and it is contemplated that upon receipt of the same,
26 further motions will have to be filed. Accordingly, defendant prays for leave to file
27 further motions should such motions be warranted.

IV

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing reasons, Mr. Alberto Minor-Olvera respectfully requests that this Court, 1) compel production of discovery; 2) grant leave to file further appropriate motions.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: November 27, 2007
